

ISTA 2017 CORNISH YOUTH THEATRE FESTIVAL

1-3 August

amata

After last year's hugely successful inaugural event, ISTA's festival for Youth Theatres, international students and local young people is back.

Led by some of ISTA's most internationally renowned theatre practitioners, young people will create inspirational work and learn from each other in ensembles.

A targeted stimulus is designed to appeal specifically to the participant age range and to help them begin to create and devise theatre of their own making.
