

Student code of conduct...

The ISTA experience is a learning opportunity for students, teachers and artists. ISTA values diversity and collaboration, celebration and play, friendship and collegiality. These values underpin our practice and inform our development. Our Code of Conduct is based on respect: respect for the people, the place and the perspectives.

Being part of an ISTA event involves embodying and modelling the ISTA values in order to ensure high quality learning, internationalism and theatre.

- Respect the laws, customs, culture and people of the host country.
 - Respect the rules of your host family and the host school/venue.
 - Respect the curfew time set.
 - Do not explore the local environment without the supervision of your teacher or host family.
 - Do not travel in a taxi or use public transport unless you are accompanied by a member of your host family or your teacher.
 - Do not use transportation, where the driver of the vehicle is a student.
 - Wear appropriate clothing at all times.
 - The use of alcohol, tobacco, or un-prescribed drugs is strictly forbidden.
 - Respect the process, your peers, and your teachers by being punctual and participating in the event to the best of your ability and with full commitment.
 - Respect and learn from the multiple perspectives of all the participants.
- Sanctions will be taken if you do not adhere to the above conduct
 - Assigned housing will not be changed, unless (except in extraordinary circumstances) and as agreed to by the host, your teacher and the ISTA Rep.
 - ISTA and the host school/venue take no responsibility for the loss or theft of any personal effects. It is your responsibility to safeguard these.
 - Report any unusual circumstances, inappropriate behaviour or concerns as soon as you can directly to your teacher.
